

The Modern Invention of ‘Dynasty’: A Global Intellectual History, 1500–2000

University of Birmingham, Strathcona Building, Lecture Room 7
21–23 September 2017

Day 1, Thursday 21 Sept

9.00 Registration

9.45 Welcome address and introduction

Simon Yarrow (BRIHC Director), Ilya Afanasyev & Milinda Banerjee

10.00 Keynote 1 Pamela Crossley (Dartmouth College)

‘Dynasty’ and the Locus of Legitimacy in the Qing Domains, 1689–1912

Chair: Manjeet Ramgotra (SOAS, University of London)

11.00 Coffee break

11.30 Panel 1: Theoretical Preliminaries: Three Moments in Defining ‘Dynasty’

Chair: Simon Yarrow (BRIHC, University of Birmingham)

- Ilya Afanasyev (BRIHC, University of Birmingham) : ‘Dynasty’, the Medieval Other and the Ideology of ‘Modernity’
- Milinda Banerjee (LMU Munich/Presidency University, Kolkata) : The Spread of the Sovereign State Model as a ‘Motor’ for Dynasticization of Political Concepts and Practices in Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Global History
- Dina Gusejnova (University of Sheffield) : Four Concepts of Dynasty in German Intellectual History ca. 1900

13.00 Lunch

14.30 Panel 2: Colonial Foundations of Dynastic Constructions: Rethinking South Asia

Chair: Milinda Banerjee (LMU Munich/Presidency University, Kolkata)

- Manu Sehgal (University of Birmingham) : Politics and the Politics of Conquest: Recovering a Global History of Empire Building in Late Eighteenth-Century South Asia
- Priya Atwal (University of Oxford) : ‘Royal Blood’ and the Making of Queen Victoria’s ‘Imperial Family’
- Simon Cubelic (Heidelberg Academy of Sciences and Humanities) : Transnational Dynastic Knowledge in Nineteenth-Century Nepal? Nepali Chronicles of the Kings of England
- Maximilian Drephal (University of Sheffield) : Modernity and Monarchy in Afghanistan: Colonial India and Dynastic Change in 1929

16.30 Coffee break

17.00 Panel 3: Early Modern Figurations I: Centring the ‘Margins’

Chair: Liesbeth Geevers (Leiden University)

- Endre Sashalmi (University of Pécs) : Perception(s) of the Ruling Kin in Russia from 1547 to 1725 in the Most Important Written and Visual Sources of Political Ideology
- Tom Tölle (Princeton University) : Frail Royal Bodies and the Making of Dynastic Eurocentrism, c. 1699 – 1716
- Naveen Kanalu Ramamurthy (UCLA) : Figurations of Dynasty: The Grand Mogul, a Symptomatic Idea of the Despotic Prince

18.30 Wine Reception

Day 2, Friday 22 Sept

10.00 Keynote 2 Richard Wortman (Columbia University)

Law and Representation in Russian Dynastic Succession

Chair: Frances Nethercott (University of St Andrews)

11.00 Coffee break

11.30 Panel 4: Early Modern Figurations II: Dynastic Narratives in Europe

Chair: Nikolas Funke (BRIHC, University of Birmingham)

- Liesbeth Geevers (Leiden University) : Conceptualizing the House of Austria, 1480–1650
- Cathryn Enis (University of Birmingham) : Lineage and the Ideology of Power in England: The Dudley Earls of Warwick and Leicester, 1561–1590
- Jessica S. Hower (Southwestern University) : From ‘Tydder’ to ‘Tudor’, ‘Stewart’ to ‘Stuart’: Dynasty, Empire and Identity in the Early Modern Atlantic World

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Panel 5: Semi-Colonialism, Informal Imperialism, and Dynastic Constructions: East and Southeast Asia

Chair: Huei-Ying Kuo (Johns Hopkins University)

- David Malitz (Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok) : Performing Legitimate Kingship in Pre-Modern and Modern Siam
- Ines Eben v. Racknitz (Nanjing University) : The China War of 1860: British, French and Chinese Concepts of Rulership and Dynasty
- Egas Moniz Bandeira (Heidelberg University) : Dynasty or Nation? Sino-Foreign Dialogues at the Turn of the Twentieth Century

15.30 Coffee break

16.00 Panel 6: The Dialectics of ‘Dynasty’ and ‘Family’ in the Modern and Contemporary Age

Chair: Ilya Afanasyev (BRIHC, University of Birmingham)

- Adrian Daub (Stanford University) : Dynasty in the Age of Nuclear Family

- Anushree (Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi) : Political Dynasties in Rajasthan: Trends and Challenges in an Indian State
- Tim Gibbs (UCL) : Four Funerals and a Car Crash: Nelson Mandela and His Kinsmen

17.30 Coffee break

18.00 Keynote 3 Faisal Devji (University of Oxford)
The Dynastic Idea and Critique of Politics in Modern Islam
Chair: Daniel Rycroft (University of East Anglia)

19.30 Conference dinner

Day 3, Saturday 23 Sept

9.30 Panel 7: Dynastic Transformations in Modern Empires

Chair: Dina Gusejnova (University of Sheffield)

- Karin Schneider (Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna) : Dignity and Dynasty: The Invention of the Imperial Habsburg Dynasty in 1804/06
- Heidi Mehrkens (University of Aberdeen) : In Dynastic No-Man's Land: Archduke Ferdinand Maximilian of Habsburg and the Throne of Mexico
- Darin Stephanov (Aarhus University) : Ruler Visibility, The Invention of 'Dynasty', and Modern Belonging in the Late Russian and Ottoman Empires: Comparative, Trans-Imperial and Global Historical Dimensions

11.00 Coffee break

11.30 Panel 8: Afterlives and Resiliences: Dynastic Formations in the Twentieth Century

Chair: Lucie Ryžova (University of Birmingham)

- Hwei-Ying Kuo (Johns Hopkins University) : Multiple Dynasties and the Unbroken Confucian Lineage: Chen Huan-chang's (1880–1933) Nationalist Thought
- Hussein Omar (University of Oxford) : Of Kings and Caliphs: Monarchy After the Age of Dynastic Empires, 1914-1924
- Adam Mestyan (Duke University) : Sovereignty and the Order of Succession in Arab National Monarchies, 1914–1936

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Keynote 4 Julia Adams (Yale University)
Ruling Families and Political Dynasties in Modernity
Chair: Natalia Nowakowska (University of Oxford)

15:00 Conference closes