

Anarchism in the Iberian Peninsula

A PGR/ECR Symposium

Monday 20th June 2022 – University of Leeds and Online

9:00-9:20am - Welcome and Coffee

9:20-9:30am - Opening Remarks

9:30-11:00am - Panel 1: Transnationality and Hybridity

Chaired by Joshua Newmark

- Dr Arturo Zoffmann Rodriguez (NOVA de Lisbon), 'From Bakunin to Lenin: the communist-syndicalists and the origins of the PCE in Catalonia, 1921-24'
- Ana Campos (Lisbon), 'It started on the railroads: the journey of a Portuguese anarcho-syndicalist in the Spanish Civil War'
- Alex Doyle (Leeds), 'The encounter between anarchism and imperialism: a transnational study of Spain and Cuba (1898-1914)'

11:00-11:10am - Break

11.10am-1:00pm - Panel 1: Anarchist (Counter-)Culture

Chaired by Sophie Turbutt

- José Pedro Reis (Porto), 'The pen is a weapon: the anarchist press in the First Portuguese Republic'
- Charlotte Byrne (QMUL), 'A Queer Problem: Writing Sapphic Anarchism in a Novel of the Spanish Civil War'
- Davi Luiz Paulino (São Paulo), 'Libertarian education in the Federation of Collectivities of Aragon during the Spanish Revolution (1936-1939): a study based on Félix Carrasquer's reflections'
- Henry Brown (Kent), "'¡Vivan las tribus!': Persecution, Resistance, and Anarchist Agency in the Popular Army during the Spanish Civil War (1936-9)'

1:00-2:00pm - Lunch

2:00-3:00pm - Keynote Address by Prof. Pamela Beth Radcliff (title TBC)

Discussion led by Joshua Newmark

3:00-3:10pm Break

3:10-4:40pm - Panel 3: Modernism, Urbanism and Anarchism

Chaired by Sophie Turbutt

- Dr Francisco José Fernández Andújar (Granada), ‘Anarchism as a factor of modernization: the example of Granada’
- Dr Diogo Duarte (IHC/NOVA FCSH), ‘The city in the anarchist imaginary in Portugal (first decades of the 20th century)’
- Òscar Ferrer i Bech (Stanford), ‘Inside every Catalan there is an anarchist. Joan Maragall and the free-thinking origins of Catalan modernisme’

4:40-4:50pm - Break

4:50-5:45pm - Workshop by Prof. Pamela Beth Radcliff and Prof. Richard Cleminson

5:45-6:00pm Closing Remarks

To register to attend the symposium, fill out the Google Form.

Due to the hybrid nature of the event, attendance will be limited with priority given to PGRs and ECRs.

